

pinot rivals - Australia & NZ

go head to head in an extensive Pinot Noir tasting

★★★★★ 93 points

“2009 Maude Mt Maude Vineyard (A$60/NZ$48) was one of my favourites. I particularly liked the stemmy fragrance and estery overtones from whole bunches which added great complexity to the dark fruit. The palate is intensely flavoured with a touch of cinnamon. This will age brilliantly, building further fragrance and complexity.”

Gourmet Traveller Wine, Pinot Rivals, Feb/Mar Issue 2013